

Everyday for Tara

The Tara Center Update

1. The civilian search continues.
2. Four local searchers + Tiffany from Channel 13 Macon Locals searched the old landfill on Saturday 11/12/05.
3. Tara's girlfriends from Cochran and South Carolina searched the city 11/13/05.
4. Fitzgerald Horsemen/women searched the banks of the Ocmulgee River this week.
5. Residence of Forest Estates searched this week.
6. Michelle Sherrod passed out flyers at the Alpaha Station over the weekend.
7. Mary Osborn passed out flyers at entrance to Delphi
8. Suzie Davis passed out flyers over the weekend. She will pass out the new flyers of Tara at Jr. Beta Convention in Macon. (Suzie, don't forget to pick them up!)
9. Nelda Walker and Angie Register will take ICHS students to the Hawkinsville Christmas Open House to sell Tara items. Nelda will be taking a bus, and any student can participate. Contact Nelda or Angie.
10. Douglas has invited Teachers and ICHS Teens for Tara to participate in their Christmas parade December 3rd.
11. Several students worked the computers this week: Kari Sutton, Stacy Hudson, and Dana Wilder.
11. Birthday/prayer vigil Monday night was uplifting. Thanks to Brett Walker and Dana Wilder for organizing the event. Kayla Cleghorn sang one outstanding song for Tara. She has a great voice, and we need her to sing more often. WOW!
12. I started writing Teacher for Tara Thank-you letter on Sunday night.
13. Anita completed and mailed over 100 Teachers for Tara Thank-you letters to the media, law enforcement, local volunteers and searchers. We still have many more to complete.
